2010 Greystone Cup
Men's Golf
Union vs. Trevecca
September 20-21, 2010
Old Hickory C.C. (Old Hickory, Tenn.)
Jackson National (Jackson, Tenn.)

JACKSON, Tenn. - The 2010 Greystone Cup goes to the Trevecca men's golf team. Trevecca defeated Union University in the Second Annual Greystone Cup, the Trojans second win in as many years. The rules of play are similar to the Ryder Cup Matches. The winner is the first team to accumulate a total of 8 ½ points. Trevecca won this year's event 9-7.

The event was held at two different courses this year. Monday's play took place at Trevecca's home course, the Old Hickory Country Club(Old Hickory, Tenn.). Tuesday's play moved to Union's home course, the Jackson National (Jackson, Tenn.).

The third and final round on Tuesday (9/21) was played at Jackson National. All eight members of each team played a head-to-head 18-hole Match Play round against someone from the other team. Trevecca won the Alternate Shot round 4 ½ to 3 1/2 .

The winning putt was made by Trevecca junior David Saldana, he was one down to Union's Matt Kelly with two holes to go. Saldana's birdie on 17 gave him the hole win and evened the match. A four-foot par putt on hole number 18 gave Saldana and the Trojans the win.
