IS SOCIAL WORK FOR YOU?

If you have thought about a career of helping people - whether it is working with children or youth, missions, health services, families, older adults, or many other populations - social work may be for you. Contact the Social Work Department to discuss the many possibilities of a career in social work!

BSW GRADUATES ARE PREPARED TO BECOME:

- Children & Youth Counselors
- Child Advocates
- Crisis Counselors
- Geriatric Social Workers
- Church/Missions Social Workers
- Community Organizers
- Alcohol & Drug Counselors
- Foster Care & Adoption Case Managers
- International Social Workers
- School Social Workers
- Mental Health Case Managers
- Medical Social Workers
- Disaster Relief Counselors

Many social work graduates continue their education by pursuing a Master in Social Work degree (MSW). Union University now offers a Masters in Social Work program.

UNION'S SOCIAL WORK PROGRAM INCLUDES:

- A faculty committed to excellence
- Classroom instruction in social work knowledge, values, and skills
- A semester of field practicum experience
- Opportunities to present research in local, state, and national forums.
- A strong liberal arts foundation
- Opportunities for community service
- An enthusiastic student association
- An option of day or evening classes
- Study abroad opportunities

A BSW degree prepares you for a career in which you help others succeed in the face of adversity. Union's Social Work Program is rooted in Christian faith and commitment and in social work values that promote social and economic justice. Union strives to equip students who will provide leadership and service to the world community with all its varied needs.

FIELD PRACTICUM EXPERIENCE

Field Practicum, the capstone of the professional curriculum, allows senior social work majors to get "hands on" experience by working one semester under the guidance of a professional social worker in the community.

SOME APPROVED FIELD PRACTICUM SITES:

Baptist Memorial Hospital - Memphis, Jackson - Madison Co. General Hospital and West TN Hospice, Davita Dialysis Clinic, Tennessee Department of Children's Services, Pathways Behavioral Health Services, Jackson - Madison Co. School System, Bethany/Mid-South Christian Services, Memphis, Catholic Charities, Nashville, Kiwanis Center for Child Development, Jackson Drug Treatment Court, McNairy Co. Board of Education, Tennessee Commission on Children & Youth, Nashville, Youth Villages, Milan, TN Special School District, National Assoc. of Social Workers - TN Chapter
