Oberammergau: this small Bavarian village in Germany has been a woodcarving center since the 12th century. The town is better known, however, for the Passion play its residents have performed every decade since 1634, dramatizing the crucifixion and resurrection of Jesus.

According to tradition, the residents of Oberammergau made a promise to God to perform a play based on the life of Jesus if their lives were saved from the bubonic plague that had reached epidemic proportions in the region. While the town death records do not show an abrupt cessation of deaths in the village, tradition holds that the village was spared and the play was first performed in 1634.

With a cast of 2000 – all village residents – the play is performed for five months and is seven hours long. A meal is served at intermission. It has attracted audiences from around the world since the late 19th century. Dehoney Travel is pleased to offer the following travel programs, featuring the best of Europe and highlighted by the magnificent Oberammergau Passion Play!
