

NO. 6 UNION UNIVERSITY (1-0) VS. CONCORDIA COLLEGE (1-1)

Date: Saturday, November 5, 2005

Location: The Sports Center - Henderson, Tennessee

Game Notes...

• After a slow start, Union rallied to win last night's season opener 104-83 over No. 24 Missouri Baptist. Union had six players in double figures led by Kinley Sellers with 20 points and 10 rebounds. Two of the main keys to the second half rally that saw Union out score Missouri Baptist 57-31 was the spark by Rod Ross and the play of the two big men inside. Union shot well all night, but Ross's 16 points including 3-of-3 shooting from behind the arc seemed to come at the most needed times for Union. Also, Valmeria and Frederick scored 20 of their combined 24 points in the second half.

• Tonight's opponent....Concordia played TranSouth member Martin Methodist College in their season opener. Concordia College came from behind to defeat Martin Methodist College 85-78. MMC held a 45-40 lead with 15 minutes remaining in the game, before the Hornets came from behind to take and hold on to the lead.

• In this classic, Concordia battled another TranSouth team in Freed-Hardeman last night. Freed-Hardeman won the game 93-66. Now, Concordia will play their third straight TranSouth team today versus Union.

• Union University has gained a great deal of local, conference, and national attention prior to this 2005-06 season. Nationally, Union is ranked No. 6 in the NAIA Preseason polls, No. 6 in the NAIA SportsTalk poll, and No. 3 in the Street & Smith College Basketball Preview Magazine. On the conference level, Union is the unanimous choice by the TranSouth coaches to win the TranSouth Conference Championship.

• The 2005-06 schedule for Head Coach Ralph Turner and the Union Bulldogs is by many tabbed as the toughest in the NAIA. Of the 30 regular season games, Union will play 20 games versus teams ranked or receiving votes in the NAIA preseason poll.

Opponent Facts...

Last time these teams met...

Union and Concordia College have never met in men's basketball. Concordia College is the direct result of the pioneer Lutheran missionaries in Alabama. On July 1, 1981, the name of the institution was changed from Alabama Lutheran Academy and College to Concordia College. Concordia College is located on a 22-acre site in the northeastern section of Selma. Selma, the county seat of Dallas County; is about 50 miles west of Montgomery and has a population of 23,000.
