

BAREFOOTS JOE

Application: Handmade Items

Handmade items are material goods crafted by local or visiting artists. This also covers all forms of media such as CDs. All accepted items will be sold within Barefoot's Joe.

Term: Upon the acceptance of an artist item, the artist will have three months to display the work in Barefoot's Joe. At the end of three months the artist must reapply for display space. Barefoot's Joe reserves the right to end or extend any agreement with the artist prior to or after three months.

Royalties: An agreed upon royalty will be provided to Barefoot's Joe at the sale of the handmade item. This royalty will be individually agreed upon between the artist and the Barefoot's Joe leadership team. Checks will be given to artist at the end of each month for items sold.

Marketing/Advertising: Marketing and advertising for individual products should be developed by the artist. All promotions/advertising must be approved by Barefoot's leadership team before implementation.

Tax: 10% of net sales will be deducted for sales tax.

Additional Terms: Barefoot's Joe is not responsible for any damages to displayed products. If a customer is seen breaking an item, even accidentally, that customer will be held responsible for purchase of said item. Otherwise, the artist holds full responsibility for products damaged via an act of God, accident, flood, fire, tornado, or act of government. Artist will work with Barefoot's Joe leadership in developing creative solutions in the display of the item(s).
