Mission Statement

The mission of the School of Education is to prepare educators of character and competence who reflect Christ as they serve and lead in their schools and communities.

Curriculum

The School of Education with the approval of the Tennessee State Department of Education offers three majors with licensure in six areas for Union University students seeking a license to teach in the public schools. The majors include: Learning Foundations, Liberal Studies, and Special Education. The Learning Foundations major offers the choice of licensure in Early Childhood Education (PreK-Grade 3) or Elementary Education (Grades K-6) for teaching typically developing students. The Liberal Studies major offers licensure in Middle Grades 4-8 with built-in emphases in Natural and Social Sciences upon which the student may build further or select an additional emphasis in Language Arts or Math. The Special Education major prepares students to teach special needs youth in the areas of Modified Special Education (K-12) and Comprehensive Special Education (K-12). Completion of the major, together with the general education core and a professional education minor, comprise the academic course requirements for a teaching degree at Union University.

Assessment of Majors

Admission to and continuance in the Teacher Education Program and the PRAXIS II examination are integral parts of the assessment of Education majors.

Student Organization

Kappa Delta Pi, international Honor Society in Education, is dedicated to scholarship and excellence in education.

The Student Tennessee Education Association is composed of students on the campus who are preparing to teach. Its purpose is to offer its members all the opportunities, responsibilities, and privileges of the National Education Association and the Tennessee Education Association and to acquaint future teachers with the history, ethics, and program of the organized teaching profession.

Student Awards

The Nora Smith Barker Student Teacher of the Year Award is presented to that student who, in the judgment of the School of Education, has demonstrated to the highest degree in both the college and preparatory classrooms those skills and attributes held to be characteristic of outstanding certified classroom teachers and who shows greatest promise of achieving this status in years to come. An award is given to one Elementary, one Secondary and one Special Education Student teacher.
