For All It's Worth!

Are you and those in your church reading the Bible for all it's worth?

Scripture is clear about the fact that it is the source of wisdom and life giving power. But are you getting out of it all that you should?

We often encounter things hard to understand or to apply to our lives. However, with some good introduction and tools one can greatly increase his ability to interpret and apply Scripture. The Ryan Center is happy to host its second bi-annual conference with the theme "For All It's Worth! Reading and Studying the Bible for Life."

We are blessed to have an amazing group of Bible teachers with us this year. It will be an excellent opportunity for training pastors, Sunday school teachers, and Bible study leaders. Our desire is to provide tools that might enhance the reading and studying of the Bible in the churches that we might know more of its life-giving power and see a renewal among us.

Special Musical Guest:

Michael Card

Michael Card has become an established and respected figure in Christian music and publishing. In a career that spans 25 years, he has authored or co-authored 9 books, recorded over 20 albums, hosted two radio programs, written for a wide range of magazines, including a medical journal, and started his own magazine. In everything he does, Card seeks to encourage his audience to join him in his own journey to know and be known by God by asking questions and entering discussion with one another. To that end Card has branched out beyond the music which made his name known within the Christian community into the various mediums he uses today, all for the purpose of teaching the Word of God, his ultimate desire. Card's passion for careful and insightful Bible study can be seen in the lyrics of his songs. Center Senior Fellow, Dr. George Guthrie, comments "Michael Card is not an entertainer. He is a minister who models deep reflection on the Word of God as the source of his life and ministry. I am thrilled he is going to be with us."
