By signing below, I agree to abide by the rules and regulations of the college as described in the Undergraduate Catalogue and The Student Handbook.

in Compliance with all applicable state and federal law, including provisions of the Title IX of the Education Amendment of 1972 and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, Union University does not illegally discriminate on the basis of race, sex, color, national origin, age, disability, or military service in admissions; in the administration of its education policies, programs or activities; or in employment. Under federal law, the university may discriminate on the basis of religion in order to fulfill its purposes. Persons who believe their rights under this policy have been violated should contact the Office of the President.

In compliance with its duties under state and federal law, Union University makes an annual report of campus crime statistics and campus security policies. These reports are distributed annually to current students and employees. Prospective students and employees may request copies of the reports from the Office of Safety and Security.
