

Olford Monday Evening School

In days of uncertainty and confusion, people need to hear a clear Word from the Lord, presented in the power of the Holy Spirit. As we seek to encourage participants to “rightly divide the Word of truth,” we will focus on accuracy, clarity, and integrity in preparation and presentation of Biblical messages.

ESSENTIALS OF EXPOSITORY PREACHING AND TEACHING – RIGHTLY DIVIDING THE WORD OF TRUTH

Monday Evenings March 8- April 26, 2010 6:00-9:30pm
(skip March 29 for Spring Break)

On campus at The Stephen Olford Center at Union University

4000 Riverdale Rd.
Memphis, TN 38115
901.757.7977

Cost: $180 For Credit: $300

Relevant for preachers, as well as teachers in the church, and all those involved in communicating Biblical truth, this Monday Evening School program teaches fundamental principles and practical methods for preparing and delivering biblical messages. The definition of expository preaching and teaching, personal holiness, the methods of study, preparation, and delivery, and the vital role of the Holy Spirit in proclamation are some of the topics covered in this 7 week course of study. Learn from some of our top-notch professors and instructors. Your ministry will never be the same!

Dr. Ken Easley

Dr. David Olford

Dr. Ted Rendall

Dr. Frank Anderson

To register: <http://www.uu.edu/centers/olford/registration/winter10-evening.cfm>

Call our office for more information. This class can be applied to the Certificate Program requirements. It can also be taken for credit in the A.Div. Program. Please call for details.

Not available for Distance Learning at this time.