WEST TENNESSEE MINISTERS CONFERENCE 2010-2011

STANDING STRONG

FINISHING WELL

“For they all wanted to frighten us thinking, ‘Their hands will drop from the work, and it will not be done.’ But now, O God, strengthen our hands.”

Nehemiah 6:9

MESSAGE FROM THE CONFERENCE PRESIDENT

The FIRST TUESDAY of every month. We encourage you to set that day aside on your busy calendars to invest in yourself and in the lives of fellow ministers. No doubt vocational ministry provides blessings beyond measure. On the other hand, we are prime targets for the enemy as well. The enemy has always sought to disrupt, discourage, and destroy.

The West Tennessee Ministers' Conference is an opportunity for senior pastors and staff members to meet together for a time of refreshing and fellowship. We really do need each other.

Our theme for the 2010-2011 year is: Standing Strong; Finishing Well. Nehemiah faced opposition while carrying out his great work. He declared that his enemies "were trying to frighten us, thinking, 'They will become discouraged with the work and it will not be done,' but now, O God, strengthen my hands." (Nehemiah 6:9) The enemy is still trying to discourage those who sincerely want to accomplish kingdom work.

One of the ways the Lord strengthens the hands of those He calls out is through relationships and interaction with one another. Will you set aside at least this one time per month to be an encouragement and to be encouraged? I believe it will be time well invested.

I look forward to our time together!

Mark McSwain, President
