Purpose of the CCMS Program

To equip students pursuing vocational ministries to think Christianly to serve faithfully through the local church to walk obediently before God and to minister with excellence by representing the character of Christ to His Church and the world.

Objectives of the CCMS Program

1. To prepare students for effective leadership in the local church and in para-church organizations.
 2. To lead students to examine their experience of call into the Gospel ministry and to assist them in developing a clearer understanding of that call.
 3. To lead students to examine the Biblical basis for understanding the nature, mission, life and work of the local church in today's world.
 4. To encourage students to be intentional in their efforts to maintain a dynamic personal devotional life.
 5. To provide financial support to Southern Baptist students who have responded to God's call in some field of church-related vocational ministry.
