

Art Scholarship Application Form Union University Department of Art

“The Bezalel” (Exodus 31) Scholarship in the amount of $3,000.00 will be awarded to one deserving student. Other art scholarships will be awarded ranging from $250.00-$2,000.00 depending upon application criteria, studio habits and quality of submitted work. Scholarships will be awarded on a yearly basis and will be in effect for the 2012-2013 academic year. Application must be made every year for scholarship consideration. Decisions will be made based on the criteria listed below:

- Scholarships are only granted for one academic year. Students who are awarded an art scholarship for one year must reapply to be considered for the following academic year.
- Students will apply for scholarships in the spring, which will be granted for the following academic year.
- Second semester freshman and class ranks above are eligible for an art scholarship, which will be applied to the following academic year.
- Works submitted must have been completed at Union.
- Equal consideration will be given to each student regardless of level.
- Only full-time declared continuing Art Majors will be considered for an art scholarship
- Students must fill out and submit the scholarship application form, which can be obtained in the department office.
- Students must submit 5 high-quality slides indicative of their work in a plastic slide sheet OR 5 high-quality jpeg images on a CD or flash drive. (See your instructor for further information. CDs will not be returned; flash drives will. Flash drives should not contain any information other than the images to be reviewed.)
- Students will need to submit a written statement indicating why they should be considered for an art scholarship. Statement should be one page typed, double-spaced.
- The Department of Art faculty may also wish to conduct interviews with individual applicants.
- Art scholarships will be awarded at the Annual Student Art Exhibit reception. Students will also be notified by letter after the reception.

Please fill out the following application and return to the art office by 12:00 noon Tuesday, April 3, 2012. Awards will be made during the Annual Student Show reception set for Thursday, April 26, 5:30 p.m. Please print.
