

The Fifteenth Annual Senior Adult
EXTRAVAGANZA

FEATURING RUSS TAFF

Russ Taff has been singing Gospel music for as long as he can remember. His love of music, inherited from his mother, would grow into his first musical venture that led him to form a local band called Sounds of Joy. He later joined the famed Imperials as lead vocalist. After four and a half years with the Imperials, he began a successful solo career, often co-writing lyrics with his wife Tori. Accepting the invitation of his long-time friend Bill Gaither, Russ started making guest appearances at Homecoming concerts in 1991, and he eventually became a regular artist on the Homecoming Tour. From 2001 to 2004, he sang baritone with the Gaither Vocal Band, producing projects that won back-to-back Grammy nominations. In 2004, he resumed his solo career. In all, Russ has won a total of five Grammys and nine Gospel Music Association Dove awards. Billboard Magazine has hailed him "the single most electrifying voice in Christian music."
