

Save the Date !
October 26, 2009

"Remember Me:
The Second Annual Commemorative Walk
for Homicide-loss Survivors"

Monday, October 26, 2009

The Grant Center, Union University Campus

3-4:45 - Optional seminar for homicide-loss survivors featuring speakers from crime victims' rights organizations, West TN Legal Services, and Victims Services Office of the TN Dept. of Corrections

5-6— Banquet (free to all homicide-loss survivors!)

6-6:30— The commemorative walk and white balloon release

Family members and friends of homicide victims are invited to carry photos of their loved ones during the brief walk. Please be aware that the media will be invited to this event, along with community dignitaries and other organizations such as the Jackson Police Department and Crime Stoppers.

IMPORTANT!!

Please send back the enclosed stamped, self-addressed postcard indicating your intentions to participate in this commemorative event for homicide-loss survivors. We will send you a ticket for the event and a map directing you to the event site on the Union University campus. Questions or concerns may be directed to:

Dr. Theresa Blakley @ 731-661-5564 or email at tblakley@uu.edu

This event is being organized by the Trauma, Faith, & Resilience Program of the Center for Just and Caring Communities, at Union University. This event is FREE to family members and friends of persons who have lost their lives to homicide.

PLEASE SEE INSERT ABOUT HOW TO INCLUDE A PHOTO OF YOUR LOVED ONE ON WEST TN's FIRST EVER MEMORY QUILT COMMEMORATING VICTIMS OF HOMICIDE!!