Fresh Start Jackson – Fall 2009
White Hall 102

The mission of Fresh Start is to begin the faculty development process so that new faculty will:

1. seek to know and love God and see their teaching, scholarship, creative work, and service as part of their Christian calling to the academic world
2. become excellent teachers and creative and fruitful contributors to their disciplines
3. discover their potential for advancement into positions of academic leadership

Session One: The First Two Weeks & Co-curricular Learning September 8 or 9; 3-4 pm
(This session will meet in Harvey Hall in the SUB)

Objective: To consider how things are going and any surprises, challenges or needs.

Session Two: Planning for Development September 15 or 16; 3-4 p.m.

Objective: To create and sustain a faculty development plan (FDP) that will lead to professional opportunities, classroom success and personal satisfaction.

Session Three: Planning for Scholarly Contributions October 6 or 7; 3-4 p.m.

Objective: To develop your research and writing interests into an action plan.

Session Four: Planning for Learning October 13 or 14; 3-4 p.m.

Objective: To plan and facilitate the best classroom learning experience for all students.

Session Five Planning for Service November 10 or 11; 3-4 p.m.

Objective: To consider ways of serving at the department level, university level, broader academic level and within the Jackson community.

Fresh Start Germantown – Fall 2009

Planning for Development TBA based on faculty schedules