SESSION DESCRIPTIONS

Session	Room	Level	Presenter/Title	Description
1 & 2	111	High School	Gwendolyn Tomlin, special educ teacher, JMCSS Common Core Standards and Common Disability Characteristics	This session will cover secondary-level students with mild and high incidence disabilities including learning disabilities, mild intellectual disability, mild emotional disability, and high functioning autism. Discuss characteristics of adolescents with high incidence disabilities and factors that influence learning. The session will end with a discussion on effective instruction and behavior management techniques for content area instruction.
1 & 2	112	Middle School	Lisa Whaley & Marilyn Davis, teachers, Chester County Schools Getting to the CORE of Group Work	The session will incorporate techniques for applying Common Core Standards in group activities. Specific emphasis will be given to individual role responsibilities and defense of responses. The participants will be actively involved in a mock lesson.
1 & 2	113	Elem/ Middle School	Jessica Donnell & Elizabeth Parnell, library media specialists, JMCSS Teaching the Common Core through Literature	Our session will be an hour-long immersion in great books. We will highlight exemplary picture and chapter books and pair them with Common Core Standards they can be used to teach. Teachers will leave with a bibliography of quality books to use in the classroom as well as engaging activities for students.
1 & 2	114	All	Kathryn Huffman & Marvin Rayner, Tipton County Schools Reaching ALL Students	Poverty...students with disabilities..Ethnicity...what do these words have in common? SUBGROUPS! If you truly want to make a difference in your school and in your classroom, then you must recognize and understand the differences in these students and how to reach and teach them. This presentation will assist you in opening your eyes and the lines of communication to reaching ALL students and helping you achieve your Gap Closure targets.
1 & 2	122	Preschool & Lower Elem	Dr. Tiffany Green, Principal Whitehall PreK, JMCSS Common Core and the Early Grades (PreK-1)	In this session educators of PreK-1 students will leave with strategies and resources that can be instantly used in the classroom to assist with implementing the CCSS in Language and Math.
3 & 4	111	Middle School	Karen Terry, language arts teacher, Benton County Junior High Common Core and Trials in Teaching	Using trials of literary and/or pop culture characters to motivate students to increase their writing abilities, discuss and use critical thinking skills, and teach a wide variety of standards. The students become the prosecuting and defending attorneys.
3 & 4	112	Elem/ Middle School	Dr. Robyn Batson Covington Integrated Arts Academy Reading the Masters: An Arts Integrated Curriculum	Reading the Masters is an arts integrated curriculum that uses masterpiece works of art to teach reading, writing, language arts, and non-arts connections.
3 & 4	113	Preschool & Lower Elem	Abby Ross & Suzanne Chapman, preschool teachers, Crockett Co Schools Piecing It All Together: Integrating Common Core into Your Everyday	Are you feeling overwhelmed by the Common Core Standards? In this session, we will go through a sample unit and show you how you may already be implementing these standards in your lessons. You will leave with lots of ideas that you can begin using in your classroom on Monday morning!

			Lessons
3 & 4	114	All	Becky Whitehead & Leah Wages, Lane Elementary teachers, JMCSS Cues, Questioning, & Thinking Maps	Our presentation will focus on research-based strategies from Marzano and Dr. David Hyerle (Thinking Maps) that have been successful in our classrooms. The strategies are applicable to any grade level and/or subject and will help strengthen comprehension and the depth of thinking developed through the use of cues, questioning, and graphic organizers.
3 & 4	122	All	Megan Shulman, library media specialist, JMCSS & JSCC, and Jennifer Ballard, Spec Educ teacher, JMCSS Punctual Picture Books: Just in Time for the Common Core	This session is geared to teachers of all grades and subjects on how they may implement exemplar picture book texts into their everyday lessons to further the Common Core State Standards. Examples of texts and lesson ideas will be presented on how best to use picture book texts within the context of the Common Core to delve deeper into cognitive processes than teachers have been able to before. Participants will leave with lists of books that fit exemplar texts and areas in which implementation will be key for further study.
