

Barnabas Leadership Award, 2012 Nomination Form

Do you know a member of the junior class who consistently leads with a servant's heart on campus and/or in the community at large? You can honor him or her as well as the practice of servant leadership by nominating that person for the Barnabas Leadership Award.

In partnership with the Barney II Foundation, Union University has established the Barnabas Leadership Award to recognize students who have demonstrated leadership in the area of community and ministry service. Juniors with at least a 2.5 cumulative GPA are eligible to receive one of the two $500 awards that will be presented at Awards Day chapel on May 4. Recipients are asked to designate at least $100 of the award to a charitable agency or non-profit organization of their choice.

The Barnabas Leadership Award promotes the ideals of servant leadership in the Union community. A committee of faculty, staff, and students will review the nominations to select the finalists and recipients. Nominations must be submitted to Toby Brown (tbrown@uu.edu) by Friday, February 24, 2012.

Nominee: _____

For how long and in what context(s) have you known the candidate?

Describe this candidate's present and past voluntary involvement in community, church, campus or other groups while a student at Union University.
(Attach additional sheets if necessary.)

Please explain the servant leadership qualities possessed by this student and how he or she has affected the life of the community or organization(s) in which he or she actively participates.

Additional comments may be attached to this form. Students who are nominated will be asked to provide additional biographical information as part of the selection process.

Nominated by: _____