CROSS COUNTRY
Lyon and Cumberland were the only two cross country teams in action this past weekend with Union taking the weekend off. Lyon ran in the Harding University Ted Loyd Stampede. The men finished in fourth place with David Boone (29:01) and Glen Ritter (29:05) finishing 25th and 26th as Lyon top runners. The women’s team didn’t record a team score, however, Lyon’s Rita Ameri (21:27) finished 28th overall as Lyon’s top runner. Cumberland’s men ran in the Tennessee Tech Invitational where four runners competed led by David Kimathi (30:18) with a 17th place finish.

Up next for the TranSouth Cross Country teams:
Cumberland at the Frontrunner Invitational - October 15
Lyon at the Hendrix Classic - October 15
Union at the Southeast Classic (Berry College) - October 22
Union, Lyon, and Cumberland at the Lambuth Invitational - October 28

VOLLEYBALL
Martin Methodist leads the way in a very tight TranSouth Conference race. The RedHawks are 4-1 with three other teams within two games. We are past the half way point in league play with the regular season title and seedings for the upcoming conference tournament on the line. In the NAIA Region XI rankings, Martin Methodist is No. 3, Freed-Hardeman is No. 4, and Cumberland is No. 6. Union, Lyon, and Trevecca Nazarene all out No. 7 through No. 9. Nationally, no conference teams are ranked.

Lyon College’s Alison Sablick and Susie Harper took TranSouth player and libero of the week honors for the week of September 26, 2005, while Union’s Purity Ogolla was named TranSouth setter of the week.

WOMEN’S SOCCER
Cumberland University (7-3-1, 4-0) has clinched the men’s soccer TranSouth Athletic Conference regular season championship. The title is the first TranSouth championship for the Cumberland men’s soccer program, and earns them the right to host the conference tournament on November 4-5. The Bulldogs have one game remaining but hold the tie breakers over Martin Methodist at Union, the only other teams left with the chance of catching Cumberland. In the NAIA Region XI rankings, Cumberland is No. 2, Martin Methodist is No. 4, and Union is No. 5. Union and Martin Methodist meet next Tuesday for second place in conference. Nationally, no conference teams are ranked.

Clare Sykes of Martin Methodist College was named the NAIA Region XI Player of the Week for the week ending October 9, 2005, after being selected the TranSouth Player of the Week.
