Dean

The School of Education and Human Studies houses a relatively diverse grouping of academic disciplines, including Education, Physical Education-Wellness-Sport, Psychology, Sociology, and Social Work. The School offers eleven undergraduate majors and four graduate degrees, including the M.A.Ed., M.Ed., Ed.S., and Ed.D. Three of the programs offered in the School are nationally accredited, including Teacher Education (NACTE), Social Work (CSWE), and Athletic Training (CAAHEP). Graduate programs are offered on two campuses, Jackson and Germantown.

Connecting these disciplines is a commitment to the implications and applications of the Great Commandment: a sincere desire to apply knowledge and improve the lives of people in the name and through the love of Christ.

Mission Statement

The mission of the School of Education and Human Studies is to prepare students for social service in ways that are reflective, pragmatic and consistent with Christ’s teachings, whether it is to teach, to lead, to counsel, to assist, or to rehabilitate.
