Meals as listed in itinerary (B = breakfast; L = lunch; D = dinner). An English-speaking tour escort will accompany the group in Germany and Switzerland; local tour guides in Rome.

BAGGAGE ALLOWANCE:
Due to space limitations on buses used, we have included portage for only one check-on bag (combination width, length and height not to exceed 62 inches and maximum weight of 50 pounds) in tour cost. You may also take one carry-on that will fit under your airline seat or in the overhead compartment.

NOT INCLUDED:
Gratuities to motorcoach driver, escort and guides ($52 per person, $85 to Rome extension). U.S. departure, security, customs and inspection taxes and foreign departure tax (currently $610). Transportation between point of origin in the U.S. and Memphis or Nashville; meals not listed as being included; single supplement, passport fees, excess baggage and forwarding of baggage; personal items such as laundry, tips for personal favors, insurance, any costs resulting from absence or deviation from the itinerary and any items not shown herein as being included.

PAYMENT:
Payment can be made by cash, check or credit card (Discover, MasterCard or Visa). A deposit of $500 is required at the time of booking to confirm tour membership. Balance of tour price is due April 1, 2007 or upon receipt of final invoice.

DEVIATION ITINERARY:
Dehoney Travel is not responsible for changes and delays in airline schedules and cannot reimburse passengers for expenses resulting from delays, re-issuance of air tickets, etc. In event of cancellation, there will be handling and cancellation fees of $50 for Dehoney Travel to cover administrative costs. In addition, the following scale of charges may apply when notice of cancellation is given in writing after the booking is confirmed: 120-90 days prior to departure - $350 per person, 90-60 days prior - $500 per person, 60-45 days prior - 50% of total tour price, 45-30 days prior - 50% of total tour price, 30-15 days prior/day of departure/no show, tour cost is non-refundable. All cancellation notifications must be made in writing to Dehoney Travel. Please allow four weeks for cancellation refund processing.

TRAVEL PROTECTION PLAN:
As many U.S. health carriers do not provide benefits while outside the country and cancellation penalties can be substantial for many tours, Dehoney Travel, Inc. offers a Travel Protection Plan, TripCare, through Access America. The Option to Waive Pre-existing Condition requires purchase of Travel Protection within 14 days of deposit. You may decline the Travel Protection Plan, but a signed disclaimer is required and all cancellation charges are your responsibility.

STATEMENT OF RESPONSIBILITY:
Dehoney Travel, Inc. (DT), agrees to arrange for the tour described in this brochure, which brochure represents the entire agreement between the passenger and his agent, the Tour Host and DT. Except for the willful negligence of its direct employees, DT assumes no liability or responsibility for any injuries, inconveniences, illness or irregularity or incidental damages occasioned by circumstances beyond the control of DT or any person or reason whatsoever, including, but not limited to, events such as strikes, revolts, wars, travel warnings, terrorist activities, natural disasters, closures of airports or hotels, or omission of any common or private carrier or the default, negligence, or omission of and by any third party providing services or facilities related to or included in this tour or any part thereof, or in arranging for the same, or the acts or omissions of the Tour Host.

UNION UNIVERSITY offers this once-in-a-lifetime itinerary tailored to include sites important in the 16th Century Reformation.

Germany & Switzerland June 15-25, 2007 with optional Rome extension June 25-28

Hosted by Dr. David S. Dockery with guest lecturer, Dr. Timothy George, scholar and authority on Reformation History, and accompanied by Dr. Charles Fowler and Gary Williams.
DAY 1, FRIDAY, JUNE 15
USA/BERLIN
We depart from our hometown and travel to our gateway city, where we board our transatlantic jet bound for Berlin. (meals aloft)

DAY 2, SATURDAY, JUNE 16
BERLIN/WITTENBERG
Upon arrival in Berlin, we tour this once-divided city. We see the Kaiser Wilhelm Memorial Church, Tiergarten and the Olympic Stadium, the Reichstag, the Brandenburg Gate, St. Hedwig’s Cathedral, the Soviet War Memorial, St. Mary’s Church, the restored Opera House, the famous 300-foot-wide boulevard “Unter den Linden” and the Marienkirche. We then proceed to Wittenberg for dinner and overnight at Stadtpalais Wittenberg. (meals aloft,D)

DAY 3, SUNDAY, JUNE 17
WITTENBERG/HALLE/EISLEBEN/ERFURT
Today we tour Wittenberg, birthplace of the Reformation and city of Frederick the Wise who was patron and protector of Martin Luther. Luther lived here from 1508 until his death. We visit the historic All Saints Castle Church and its famous door where he nailed his 95 Theses and which contains the graves of Luther and Melanchthon. We see the University and visit Melanchton’s House and the Stadtkirche as well as the Luther House, which is the largest and greatest museum of Reformation history in the world. We see the Luther monument and the renaissance Town Hall. We continue to Halle, where the University of Halle is situated. Founded for its role in the history of migrations. We visit Eisleben where Luther was born in 1483 and died in 1546. We see St. Andrew’s Church, where Luther preached his last sermon, and we view the Luther Monument. Then we go to Erfurt where we visit Erfurt Cathedral and the Augustinian Monastery where Luther studied to become a monk and where he was ordained in 1507. We also visit the small cell where a novice Luther struggled to find peace with God. Dinner and overnight are at the Altes Brahnhaus. (B,D)

DAY 4, MONDAY, JUNE 18
EISENACH/ERFURT
We traveled to Eisenach, birthplace of Johann Sebastian Bach, and visit his house. Eisenach is also where Luther attended Latin school for three years. After our visit here, we go to Wartburg Castle, set high in the Thuringian Mountains. It was here in 1521 that Luther was put into protective custody for ten months, after the Emperor condemned him as an outlaw and heretic. During this time Luther completed his translation of the New Testament into German, a tremendous linguistic task that served as the basis for the New High German. Luther’s room is preserved in its original condition. We return to Erfurt for overnight. (B)

DAY 5, TUESDAY, JUNE 19
WEIMAR/BAMBERG/ROTHENBURG
We travel to Weimar, home of the Stadtkirche St. Peter and Paul, where the famous Lucas Cranach masterpieces of Luther are located. Then on to Bamberg for a walking tour of the city, before driving on to Rothenburg, a medieval village that is encircled by massive walls. The 16th century walls, with turrets and cobblestone lanes, have been left almost untouched by the passing centuries. Of special note are the Town Hall, the Protestant church, St. Jakobskirche and the Spitaltor, which is the Hospital Gate. Also in Rothenburg is Kate’s (pronounced “Katie’s”), one of the most fascinating Christmas stores you will ever see. Dinner and overnight are at the Altes Brahnhaus. (B,D)

DAY 6, WEDNESDAY, JUNE 20
HEIDELBERG/WORMS/MAINZ/ROTHENBURG
Today we travel to Heidelberg, stronghold of German Reformed Protestants in the last half of the 16th century when the Heidelberg Catechism was produced in 1563. Heidelberg is also home to one of Germany’s oldest universities. We continue on to Worms, where in 1521 Luther challenged the church establishment by refusing to recant the great doctrines of Protestantism. It was also here that William Tyndale completed the printing of New Testament in 1535. We visit St. Peter’s Church and Luther Memorial before continuing to Mainz to visit the Gutenberg Museum. We return to Rothenburg for overnight. (B)

DAY 7, THURSDAY, JUNE 21
AUGSBURG/CONSTANCE/LECUCERNE
We drive to Augsburg, with its cathedral dating from 994, its Renaissance-style Town Hall, and St. Anne’s Church where Luther met the papal legate in 1518. In 1526, Augsburg was the site of an important Imperial Diet where Protestants presented the Augsburg Confession, the foremost doctrinal statement of the Lutheran Church. In the Fuggier Memorial Chapel, the Peace of Augsburg was signed in 1555 bringing peace for a period between Protestants and Catholics. Traveling westward brings us to Constance, a resort town on the border of Germany and Switzerland, to the execution of John Hus here in 1455. Many historians date the beginning of the Reformation. Continuing on into Switzerland, we travel to Lucerne to the Astoria Hotel for dinner and overnight. (B,D)

DAY 8, FRIDAY, JUNE 22
LEC UCERNE/ZURICH
After breakfast at the hotel we have a guided visit of the city. Lucerne, an all-time favorite of Americans, is beautifully situated on Lake Lucerne with splendor views of Mount Pilatus and Mount Rigi. We see the Chapel Bridge, the Lion Monument, the Old Towne, and the Spreuer Bridge. We travel to Zurich, Switzerland’s largest city and one of the world’s most important financial capitals. Zurich was the city of Zwingli, the most influential figure in the Swiss Reformation. It served as the refuge for many English Protestants banished during the reign of Queen Mary. Here it is believed Miles Coverdale’s first entire translation of the Bible and Apocrypha was published in 1515. We will see the Gross-Muenster Cathedral (Zwingli’s Church), Zwingli’s home and study, the home of Conrad Grebel, the site of Felix Manz’ execution by drowning in the Limmat River; and Zollikon, where the first public baptisms among the Anabaptists took place. We return to Lucerne for overnight. (B)

LEC UCERNE/INTERLAKEN/BERNE/MONTREUX/GENEVA
This morning we tour Berne by way of Interlaken, a scenic route that takes us over an Alpine pass and in the shadow of the towering Jungfrau mountain. In Berne we will see the ancient arcaded streets, medieval painted fountains and the Gothic Minster Cathedral, as well as the Bear Pit where the bears have amused visitors since 1441. We stop in Montreux to absorb the spectacular panorama of the Dents-du-Midi peaks across the lake and view the impressive medieval Chateau de Chillon, a controlling presence on the road over the Alps. We continue on to Geneva for overnight at the Warwick Hotel. (B)

DAY 10, SUNDAY, JUNE 24
GENEVA
Today we tour Geneva, a delightful city situated on the banks of Lake Geneva and surrounded by alpine peaks and the slopes of the Jura Mountains. It is also called the Peace Capital of the World. We visit St. Peter’s Cathedral, where John Calvin presided and taught, as well as Calvin’s Academy. The winding cobbled streets of Rue Calvire are lined with 16th century patrician homes, including the residence of John Calvin. The city attracts many scholars and students with its great libraries and its 400-year-old University. We see the Reformation Museum, which pays tribute to the great religious movement and visit the Reformation Museum. We enjoy dinner at a local restaurant and return to our hotel for overnight. (B,D)

DAY 11, MONDAY, JUNE 25
GENEVA/USA
After breakfast we transfer to the airport for our return flight to the States. (B,meals aloft)

OPTIONAL THREE-DAY EXTENSION TO ROME

DAY 13, MONDAY, JUNE 25
GENEVA/ROME
Today we fly from Geneva to Rome. Upon arrival, we transfer to the centrally-located Quirinale Hotel and have the balance of the day at leisure. (B)

DAY 12, TUESDAY, JUNE 26
ROME
This morning we visit the Sistine Chapel and see the famous ceiling painted by Michelangelo. We visit St. Peter’s Basilica, the largest church in the world. We see the Roman Forum and visit Mamertine Prison. We continue touring this afternoon in Rome, visiting the Catacombs. As Luther did, we climb the holy steps, which according to legend are the reconstructed steps of Pilate’s palace. Overnight at our hotel. (B)

DAY 14, THURSDAY, JUNE 28
ROME/USA
After breakfast, we transfer to the airport for our return flight to the States. (B,meals aloft)
