WHERE FAITH AND KNOWLEDGE UNITE.

UNION UNIVERSITY

A LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT

I often remind our students that college can either be a greenhouse, where your faith grows and flourishes, or a graveyard, where it withers away. Here at Union, our close-knit community is deeply committed to providing a transformative academic environment where your faith will not only survive, but thrive. No matter what God is calling you to do, Union is a place that will prepare you to faithfully and courageously live a life dedicated to the kingdom of God. I look forward to seeing you grow at Union University.

THE ETHOS FORUM

THE HUB

Built for collaboration

The Ethos Forum is a 40,204-square-foot, state-of-the-art facility that brings together Union's McAfee School of Business and the departments of Computer Science and Engineering. At the heart of the building is the HUB—a collection of dynamic spaces where students, faculty, and community members come together to design, innovate, and launch ideas that matter.

Step inside The Ethos Forum to watch faith and knowledge unite.

Faculty Highlight

MEET DR. APRIL ROWSEY

Dr. Rowsey, assistant professor of management, brings invaluable insights into the classroom, with a background that spans both corporate leadership and higher education.

She prepares students for the ever-evolving workplace by bringing practical application into the classroom. Through hands-on projects and tools like AI, she helps students sharpen their problem-solving, critical thinking, and communication skills.

“ Serving at Union has been one of the most rewarding and fulfilling experiences of my career – not only as a way to live out my professional calling, but also as something deeply meaningful for our entire family. ”

LIVING IN JACKSON, TN

Some of our MUST-DO'S:

- ★ Cheer on the Jackson Rockabillies, our hometown Prospect League baseball team!
- ★ Shop local, just steps from campus – from hidden, vintage gems to all your go-to brands.
- ★ Start your day with a coffee from one of Jackson's many local cafés – classic drip or fancy latte.
- ★ Spend a Saturday at the West Tennessee Farmers' Market. Fresh produce and a treat from The Donut Truck... yes, the long line is worth it!
- ★ Get active with a walk, run, or bike ride on the Union University Trails, or grab some friends for a game of pickleball at Conger Park.

MEET CECILY BERRY

Piperton, TN | Business Administration: Finance | BSBA '24, MBA '25

Cecily Berry completed her bachelor's degree in economics from Union in December and through an accelerated program was able to finish her master's degree just one semester later.

“Union has prepared me not only academically, but also spiritually – thanks to professors who genuinely care about my walk with Christ. The faith-based education and the incredible opportunities I've found here are unlike anything I could have imagined. Looking back, I'm grateful for how much of a blessing Union has been in my life. ”

GRADUATE PROGRAMS

Advance your career and deepen your expertise by pursuing one of Union's 18 graduate programs, offered in Jackson, Germantown, Hendersonville, and online. Continue your Christ-centered education beyond the bachelor's level and take the next step toward your professional and academic goals.

MEET COACH CAMPBELL

Mark Campbell began his UU women's basketball career in 1999 and became Union's director of athletics in 2023.

The 2024-25 season was another historic season for Union, as the Lady Bulldogs advanced to the Final Four and Campbell was inducted into the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame.

“ Being part of Union University's wonderful community has been one of the greatest blessings for me and my family. Coaching and teaching here for 31 years alongside outstanding players and coaches has never felt like a job — it's been a joy filled with great experiences. Union is a place where we keep our priorities straight while still pursuing excellence and competing for championships. ”

MEET TACKER NASH

Jackson, TN | Computer Science | Class of 2027

Tucker Nash transferred to Union and found a place that sparked both his passion and his potential. He views his field as more than a career path; it's a creative pursuit that challenges him to think deeply and build boldly. Union has provided the tools and community to help him thrive, and The Ethos Forum has elevated that experience, offering collaborative spaces and advanced technology that fuel his curiosity and drive.

“Union has supported my growth as a leader, a thinker, and as an individual. I transferred here seeking a place where I could develop fully, both academically and personally. The faculty, staff, and students have been welcoming and encouraging throughout my journey. Having access to The Ethos Forum motivates me to work diligently, explore fresh ideas, and collaborate with peers both within and beyond my major.”

- How does this university integrate Christian faith into every aspect of campus life—including academics, student life, and service?
- Will my professors know me, invest in me, and challenge me both academically and personally?
- What's the average class size, and how accessible are faculty outside the classroom?
- What makes the campus culture distinct—and will I find people who share my values?
- What kind of academic programs are offered, and how are they taught from a Christian perspective?
- What's something about this university that surprised current students after they arrived?
- How does Union handle conflict or hard conversations between students with different perspectives?
