

JACKSON READS!

Union University's Third Annual Jackson Reads Featuring
Hannah Coulter by Wendell Berry and Walking Across Egypt by Clyde Edgerton

With wit, charm and insight, Southern authors portray the phenomenon of social networking, especially among Southern women. Join the discussion on Monday evenings from July 11 to August 8 in Hartley Recital Hall located in Jennings Hall on Union's campus.

Each evening the social networks formed by Hannah Coulter and Mattie Rigsbee, two memorable Southern ladies, will be compared / contrasted with the "memberships" formed by their counterparts in other pieces of Southern fiction.
